*Faculty

Melinda Scherer, a junior music therapy major from Louisville, Kentucky, is principal violist with the University of Evansville Orchestra and is a member of the Evansville Philharmonic, Owensboro Symphony and Evansville Chamber Orchestra. In addition to her performing activities, Ms. Scherer is a member of Sigma Alpha Iota, professional music fraternity for women; UE Student Foundation; and is vice-president of the University of Evansville Music Therapy Association.

Prior to attending the University of Evansville, Ms. Scherer was a member of the Louisville-Jefferson County Youth Orchestra. Her teachers included David Ray, Clara Markham, Dora Ostromensky, and Virginia Schneider. She has participated in master classes with Daniel Avsholomov and the Juilliard String Quartet.

Ms. Scherer is a student of Delmar Pettys.

Buren Jones, a native of Lebanon, Indiana, is a senior music management major at the University of Evansville. He began studying trumpet in 1971 as a student of Mrs. Betty Blackwell. In high school Mr. Jones studied under Delbert Dale of Indianapolis. While attending Butler University, he studied under Robert Wood and Marvin Perry of the Indianapolis Symphony. Mr. Jones is currently a third year student of Professor James Bursen at the University of Evansville.

While attending Zionsville High School, he was a member of the Indianapolis Youth Symphony and attended the summer music camp at Indiana University. Mr. Jones also won several medals at the State Solo and Ensemble Competition.

He has performed with the Indianapolis Symphony and the Owensboro Symphony and has been a member of the Evansville Philharmonic for the past two years. In addition to soloing with the orchestra this evening, he also soloed with the University Wind Ensemble this year at its fall concert.

Mr. Jones now lives near Zionsville, Indiana with his parents David and Loretta Jones and would like to dedicate his performance this evening to them.
